CLOSE TO MARKET.

Sch. Victor Gets Good School of Large Mackerel.

REACHED DOCK AT 8 O'CLOCK.

Fish Were Taken at 3 O'clock
This Morning.

A special to the TIMES reports the arrival at New York this morning of the gasoline auxiliary schooner Victor, Capt.
John W. McFarland, with 5000 large fresh mackerel.

This is the second trip for the Victor this season. The fish were taken at 3 o'clock this morning, and the vessel arrived at Fulton dock about 8 o'clock, so it can be seen that mackerel are schooling not more than 50 miles from New York.
The fish reached the market in splendid condition.

Fishing Facts and Fancies.

At Fraserburgh, Scotland, recently, it is said that no fishing was going on for two weeks. The reason given is not that there were no fish, but because the fishermen and fisherwomen had temporarily set their minds on higher things. They were so busy marrying and attending the marriages of others that they did not have the time to devote to anything else.

During the last year the United States Fish Commission distributed in various waters more than 2,000,000,000 fish and eggs.
